Chapel Theatre Cast
Readying Next Show

With the closing of "The Madwoman of Chaillot," first smash production of Chapel Theatre drama group, their second production, "Green Grow the Liliacs," is in full swing. The big party scene was in rehearsal this past Sunday — with square dancers, callers, and chorus working diligently to shape up this most colorful and happy scene of the play. Director Bob Adamson states that there is still room for "cowboys" for the party scene and anyone interested may attend rehearsals on Sunday at 2 p.m. when the square dancing will once again be in full swing at the Chapel Theatre located at the rear of the Fish Shanty on Pacific Coast Highway.

"Green Grow the Liliacs" is a play about the early days in Oklahoma with the characters being colorful, quaint, eccentric, noble, and fun loving. The costumes, too, will be colorful and eccentric, depicting the mood and motif of that era.

ALL IN ALL, this will be a production which covers most everything one would wish for in entertainment — pathos, laughter, villainy, music, and a little sadness — all ingredients combined to make a well-rounded evening of entertainment. Bob Adamson will portray Curly; Doris Ward, Aunt Eller; Susan Allen, Laurey; Phil Di-Gioia, Jeeter; and Michal Colgren, Ado Annie. Opening night for "Green Grow the Liliacs" will be Nov. 3 and it will run for four weekends, with curtain time being 8:30 p.m.

DON GISH and Steve Sands announce a further addition to the Chapel Theatre family — The Allan Bratton Puppets. Bratton, who was affiliated with the "Nickanelle Marionettes" for eight years and appeared regularly at the Bullock's Department stores, announces that his first show will be held at the Chapel Theatre, Saturday, Oct. 21, at 2 p.m. He will appear regularly thereafter on Saturday and Sunday afternoons at 2 when he will present variety, fairy tales, and specialty shows for the benefit of all children in the area. Birthday parties or special occasion parties will be catered to.

THE ALLAN BRATTON Puppets will present "A Variety Show" for their first performance on the opening date, Oct. 21. Reservations may be made every day except Monday by calling FR 5-5259, FR 2-5658, or FR 8-9017. The fascinating art of puppeteering is full of unending satisfaction in the joy it brings to youngsters. Bratton is in need of a man and woman to act as his associates. Anyone interested in learning the art of puppeteering and becoming a part of the Chapel Theatre puppeteer family may contact Bratton at FR 2-5658 for further information.
